

Abdulhamied Al Romaithy

- Dr. Abdulhamied Al Romaithy is one of very few UAE Nationals who have attained high level of professional acknowledgement on national, regional and international levels. With over 34 years of work experience, he has gained the respect and recognition as a management consultant and HR expert in the region.
- Abdulhamied started his work career as an economic researcher with the Abu Dhabi Fund for Arab Economic Development in 1972. Two years later he was granted a scholarship to the US to obtain his MBA and to be appointed later as the administration director with the same government agency.
- In 1978, he joined the UAE University as a faculty member with the School of Business Administration. He went to the US again to obtain his doctoral degree in Human Resource Development and to return to the university teaching many business and management courses. The year 1983 was a landmark in his career when he left the university to start his own management and training company and become the first UAE national management consultant and trainer.
- Over the past 24 years, Alromaithy designed, organized and implemented many training programs for leading organizations in the Gulf region and in the UAE including the Abu Dhabi Chamber of Commerce and Industry, National Bank of Abu Dhabi, ADCO, ADGAS, GASCO, Abu Dhabi Businesswomen Council, etc.

- Abdulhamied has lived, worked and lectured in many countries including US, Australia, Malaysia, France, India, Tunisia, UK, Malta,Philippine, Saudi Arabia, Bahrain, Kuwait, Qatar, Oman, Yemen, Syria, Thailand, Canada, Brazil and Ireland.
- He received his elementary education from Saudi Arabia, his secondary from Bahrain and his university degree from Kuwait. He has published many articles and spoke at numerous professional conferences in UAE, Bahrain, USA, Ireland, Canada, Malaysia, India etc.; he also published three books and is working on two more.
- Over the last ten years his work has focused on three main areas: intercultural training, HR consultancy, and training and micro-finance. He has pioneered the design and implementation of many successful training and development projects in the UAE. Currently, Abdulhamied is a retained consultant for several organizations, a founder member of the Society for Intercultural Education, Training and Research (SIETAR) Middle East and adjunct faculty with a local college in the UAE.

Project Titles/Clients

- Abu Dhabi Company for Onshore Operations (ADCO), Royal Commission of Jubail & Yanbu, Saudi Aramco, Abu Dhabi Chamber of Commerce and Industry, National Bank of Abu Dhabi, Women Union, Ministry of Labour in Bahrain, Baker Hughes, Borealis, UAE University, French Chamber of Commerce and Industry in Nancy, Neste Oil, MAN Middle East, Basell, Lockheed Martin, Johnson & Johnson, RTI, Qatar Foundation, Total, Abu Dhabi Civil Aviation Department, Shrajah Government, Dubai Health and Medical services Authority, ADGAS, Oman PDO, Oman Women Society, Institute of Applied Technology, EADS, Mercedes AMG, Drager, Danone.